Fresh Focus

Hello! I'm Nathan.. The owner of the Fresh Focus photography company! Choosing your wedding photographer is very important. As well as being a fully insured, award-winning photographer with experience of shooting weddings for over 15 years, I also provide unique photos that will capture, not only the visual part of the day, but also the personalities and feelings of you, the couple and your guests. I tailor the style of photography to the needs of my clients but largely stick to my personal style of an informal documentary approach.

It goes without saying, I would absolutely love to be the one to capture your special day!

Photography

Hi I'm Tom, a photographer with over 14 years experience of capturing weddings with an editorial, creative, and natural approach. During this time I've had the privilege of photographing weddings throughout the UK and internationally. I am very passionate about the wedding industry, and am proud to have won various industry awards and have also recently been on the other side as a judge for the Kent Wedding Awards.

When photographing a wedding I like to add to the couple's day by blending in, aiming to be as unobtrusive as possible. My style blends refined composition with genuine emotion; creating images that feel both artfully curated and effortlessly real. I'm drawn to honest moments, beautiful light, and the in-between details that often mean the most. My goal is to tell each couple's story in a way that feels timeless yet uniquely personal to them.

Lola García Photography

I'm Lola, the photographer behind Alba del Sol. Málaga-born and London-based, I've spent over 20 years capturing the moments that matter, and weddings are where my heart is.

My style is warm and unobtrusive. I'm not the photographer who'll spend your day directing you into stiff poses; I'm the one quietly catching the real moments: the look your father gives you before he walks you down the aisle, the laughter during the speeches, the quiet second you steal together before the party begins. Beautiful, timeless images that feel like your day, not a template.

Being bilingual in Spanish and English, I'm a natural fit for international and bilingual couples, and I bring a calm, friendly presence that puts everyone at ease, from the nervous groom to the great-aunt who doesn't like having her photo taken.

Toastmasters & Celebrants

Graham the Toastmaster

As a Toastmaster with over ten years' experience and hundreds of weddings I have many options to discuss with you to run your day the way you wish. I do happy, fun and relaxed not stuffy and pompous!

On the day I will arrive an hour before the ceremony if civil at the hotel or your arrival if Church and review everything before greeting guests and collecting the cards which go into the post box with your names on it which I provide at no extra cost! I leave after introducing the first dance and handing over to the DJ.

I have a P/A system which I use often including rounding up guests for the photographs. Our first meeting is without obligation to discuss your many many choices for the day, after which you can book me. I am local to Bromley Court Hotel, a superb venue!

Will the Wedding Host

A Toastmaster and a Celebrant each bring something unique to your celebration. Discover the difference—and how they can perfectly complement each other—right here.

Your Day, Your Way. The Choice Is Yours.

What Is a Wedding Toastmaster?

A Wedding Toastmaster is the ultimate master of ceremonies, orchestrating your big day from beginning to end. For approximately eight hours, they handle announcements, manage the schedule, and coordinate events—all while bringing a sense of fun and formality to the occasion. Easily recognised by their iconic red tailcoat, a Toastmaster ensures everything runs smoothly, allowing you to enjoy a stress-free and well-organised celebration.

What Is a Wedding Celebrant?

A Wedding Celebrant is a professional ceremony leader who creates and conducts highly personalised services—including weddings, naming ceremonies, and funerals. Whether you're marking a milestone or celebrating a relationship, a Celebrant crafts a ceremony that reflects your unique story. Unlike registrars, Celebrants offer complete flexibility in timing, setting, and content. From traditional to totally original, they bring your vision to life—limited only by your imagination.

Entertainment

Expert Entertainment

We are a family business established on over 40 years of experience within the hospitality industry. Our business is built on a reputation of reliability and a consistent approach to delivering successful events. The business started off in the bedroom of the owner and founder, Martin Dye over 40 years ago, and originally a one man show providing just DJ services.

The company has now grown into a business which caters for several hundred events per year in both the entertainment and audio-visual worlds. Our team of over 20 DJ's boast a wealth of experience and cover each and every genre, so once we have your playlist, we will allocate the right DJ to ensure you have a fantastic evening.

We are proud recommended suppliers to The Bromley Court Hotel, being the selected company to supply DJs for all the hotel's own functions including weddings, tribute nights & Christmas parties. We are the 'one stop shop' for Photo booths, Magic Mirrors, LED letters & numbers, LED star-lit backdrops, draping, sound & light shows as well as AV equipment & much more. We own everything that we supply and aim to provide heavily discounted bespoke packages on multi-item orders.

Live Wedding Painters

Roberta Romano - Live Wedding Painter

I'm Roberta Romano, a live wedding painter based in the UK, turning beautiful moments into timeless works of art. I specialize in painting live during weddings, capturing a chosen scene, such as the ceremony, first dance, or a private moment between the couple, while guests watch the artwork come to life throughout the day. Each painting is a unique, hand-crafted keepsake, created with care, emotion, and fine detail. What sets my work apart is the personal connection I build with each couple, and the energy I bring to the canvas, my aim is not just to replicate a scene, but to capture the atmosphere and emotion of the day.

Olya Draws Live

Live portrait illustration is becoming increasingly popular in the UK and is a wonderful and creative way to entertain your guests while giving them a personalised artistic keepsake to take home as a memory of your special day.

Olya is a local artist and live event illustrator who creates elegant, hand-drawn portraits for weddings, celebrations and private events. With a background in fashion illustration and life drawing, she specialises in capturing people naturally, their expressions, personalities and the feeling of the moment.

In under 6 minutes, your guest receives a flattering, recognisable portrait they can keep and frame.

While Olya draws live, guests can enjoy watching their portrait come to life as they mingle, chat and celebrate, making the experience part of the event itself. Whether during the drinks reception, wedding breakfast or evening celebrations, live illustration adds a relaxed, artistic touch and creates a lovely talking point for guests of all ages.

Based in South London, Olya works with couples, brands and creative teams across London and the UK, as well as international clients. She tailors every event illustration experience to you, your guests and the atmosphere you want to create.
